

List A of 15 English Idioms

1. You missed the boat. – It's too late.
2. Break a leg – Good luck
3. Break the ice – Make people feel more comfortable
4. It's a piece of cake. – It's easy.
5. Once in a blue moon. – Rarely.
6. Time is money. – Work quickly.
7. He's sitting on the fence. – He can't make up his mind.
8. Come rain or shine. – No matter what.
9. Zip your lip. – Stop talking.
10. No pain, no gain. – You have to work for what you want.
11. There are clouds on the horizon. – Trouble is coming.
12. It's raining cats and dogs. – It's raining hard.
13. Give someone the cold shoulder – Ignore someone
14. So far so good. – Things are going well so far.
15. Let sleeping dogs lie. – Stop discussing an issue.

My notes:

List A of 15 English Idioms

Print and cut; mix and match pairs; mix and choose to use in dialogues; pin on the notice board, or on the wall / fridge / next to the mirror...

You missed the boat.	It's too late.	Time is money.
Break a leg	Good luck	Work quickly.
Break the ice	Make people feel more comfortable	He's sitting on the fence.
It's a piece of cake.	It's easy.	He can't make up his mind.
Once in a blue moon.	Rarely.	No pain, no gain.
Come rain or shine.	No matter what.	You have to work for what you want.
Zip your lip.	Stop talking.	It's raining cats and dogs.
There are clouds on the horizon.	Trouble is coming.	It's raining hard.
Give someone the cold shoulder	Ignore someone	So far so good.
Things are going well so far.	Let sleeping dogs lie.	Stop discussing an issue.